One Veteran Remembers Another

In solemn preparation for Memorial Day, a veteran of the Spanish-American War yesterday paid tribute to a veteran of the past war. E. BATTLE RAGES FOR VITAL CITY

Jewish, Arab Forces Struggle for Latrun, Gateway to Jerusalem

CAIRO, May 28 (AP)—Arab legion and Israeli commanders fed armor and artillery into the mounting battle for Latrun tonight after hungry, outnumbered Jews in Jerusalem's old city surrendered to King Abdullah's siege forces.

The victory of the Trans-Jordan troops in the old city was not a decisive one. The battle for a bigger prize—all of Jerusalem—was being fought out 14 miles west of the Holy City on the vital highway from Tel Aviv.

Israel's army announced that its troops captured the Arab villages of Beit Jiz and Beit Susin just south of the highway and a little more than a mile from Latrun.

AN EGYPTIAN defense ministry communique said tonight Egyptian bombers attacked and dispersed Jewish troop concentrations which were attempting to open the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road at Bab El Wad, 11 miles west of the Holy City. Bab Wad is four miles east of Latrun. A Tel Aviv dispatch said there were indications the Latrun engagement might be the decisive one in the Palestine war. The

Puddle of Paint Bursts Into Flames in Field

A large puddle of old paint that had been dumped in a field on the Bethlehem Steel company property off South Washington street flared briefly last night at 10 o'clock before it was extinguished by the Good Will Fire company. A booster line from the company's emergency truck extinguished the flames, and firemen watched the smoking until it had died down beneath the danger point.

LAKE SUCCESS, May 28 (AP)—The United States joined amid cheers today in Russia's demand for United Nations force to stop the Palestine fighting.

U. N. delegates generally conceded, however, that the Security Council is not yet ready to approve the strongest measures possible under the charter.

Instead, informed sources said, the council was more likely to adopt some version of Britain's plan for one more final try at peaceful mediation before getting tough.

France and Colombia endorsed the Russian resolution during the afternoon session but the council did not reach a vote tonight. It adjourned at 4:53 p. m. (Pottstown time) until tomorrow at 9:30 a. m.

THE COUNCIL RECEIVED a telegram from its American-Belgian-French truce commission in Jerusalem saying the Holy Sepulchre was in imminent peril from Arab bombardment.

Another telegram from the same source said the Jewish military commander in Jerusalem had informed the truce commission the Jews would take reprisals on holy places if the Arabs continued to shell the great synagogues.

These communications apparently were sent from Jerusalem before the Arab capture of the old city today.

THE FRENCH, DEEPLY concerned about the safety of the holy shrines, proposed a resolution calling on Arabs and Jews to stop hostilities in the old city by noon tomorrow.

Andre A. Gromyko, Soviet deputy foreign minister, fighting to persuade the council to take strong measures to stop the war, said he wanted to speak tomorrow before a vote is taken.

Warren R. Austin, chief U. S. delegate, told the council "The

$102 Is Contributed To Fresh Air Fund

Two modest contributors sent The Mercury's Fresh Air Fund climbing to $1408 yesterday. A check for $100 was sent by a man who asked to remain anonymous, while "An Advertiser" added $2 to the fund.

So far, at a cost of $14 per child per week, 100 boys and girls will be able to go to the Pottstown Community camp at Earlville this summer.

The camp is open to all boys and girls in the Pottstown area, and will be operated on a non-profit basis by the Spicer's Employees Aid Association. All contributions to the Fresh Air fund will go toward giving underprivileged children an opportunity to enjoy a week at the country camp

Flags to Flutter Over Graves on Memorial Day

Bright little flags will fly over long-still graves when the sun sets Monday on the three-day Memorial Day weekend.

By flags and flowers will not be the only remembrance for the fallen fighters of America.

In special services in most local churches, Pottstonians tomorrow will remember in their hearts those who died for them.

And Monday morning, officially observed as Memorial Day because the 30th is on Sunday, the veterans' groups parade and ceremonies will take place beginning at 9 o'clock.

The long weekend may be marred only by the weather, the weatherman said last night. He predicted scattered showers for this afternoon and early tomorrow, with the temperature remaining about the same.

Strike Ends at Chrysler Plants

UNION ACCEPTS 13-CENT BOOST IN WAGE ISSUE

17-Day Walkout Halted; Pay Hike Exceeds Terms Signed by GM Workers

DETROIT, May 28 (AP)—The 17-day Chrysler strike was settled tonight for a flat 13-cent hourly wage increase.

The corporation's 75,000 CIO United Auto Workers got two cents more an hour than General Motors 225,000 employees under an adjustable wage formula.

The strike was called May 12 over the union's demand for a 30-cent raise and several non-wage benefits. The increase will boost Chrysler's average hourly wage for production workers to $1.65.

Salaried employees pay was boosted about nine percent, with a floor of $20 a month.

UAW officials said the strike would be called off officially at midnight tonight.

NORMAN MATTHEWS, director of the UAW's Chrysler department and leader of the strike, said the Chrysler strike had "cracked the solid opposition to wage increases in the auto industry, a position in which auto management was allied with the steel, electrical and other industries."

Both company and union officials issued statements as the settlement was announced.

The company said production probably can not be resumed before June 7 because of the annual inventory already underway.

But the company said maintenance crews and a few other workers will be called back starting tomorrow.

CHRYSLER DECLINED comment as to whether car prices would be raised as a result of the settlement.

The agreement came under a wage reopening clause in the two-year Chrysler-UAW contract which was to have run until next April.

General Motors' new two-year contract with the union gears an immediate 11 cent increase to the cost of living and will be adjusted up or down according to the government consumers price index.

Chrysler's new agreement guarantees the full 13 cents until the contract expires.

The UAW said the settlement would cost Chrysler $23,700,000 a year.

A company spokesman estimated the strikers lost $900,000 a day and the company lost 5000 cars and trucks a day during the tieup.

Miss Jenkins to Quit School Job

Supervisor Pleaded for In-Service Training

Elizabeth M. Jenkins, an active proponent of in-service teacher training and the Cordts system, will resign as supervisor of elementary education in the Pottstown school district, it was announced yesterday.

She will assume the post of supervisor of the laboratory school at Millersville State Teachers college in September.

Speaking for himself and the school district, Dr. Frank M. Halston, superintendent of schools, declared: "We regret very much to see her leave Pottstown. She was well-qualified for the work she was doing and worked enthusiastically for the promotion of the elementary school program.

"A large share of the credit for placing the elementary schools on the level basis goes to Miss Jenkins."

Although it was not admitted, Miss Jenkins' resignation is believed to be a result of the school board's summary action in dismissing Dr. Anna D. Cordts, Rutgers university educator.

She has long been one of Dr. Cordts' most outspoken supporters and appeared in her behalf before the school board to plead the cause of in-service teacher training.

The school board, refusing to reconsider its dismissal of Dr. Cordts, promised however, to take action to institute a new in-service teacher training program. Nothing has been done to fulfill that promise at the present time.

MISS JENKINS' teaching abilities have won recognition, not only in Pottstown, but throughout the State. This was brought out at the school board meeting May 10.

Dr. Halston, believing Miss

Jenkins would resign in June, told the board it would be necessary to hold up the applications of two teachers for work here. They had requested specifically to be allowed to work under Miss Jenkins.

It was necessary for Dr. Halston to call the teachers to tell them Miss Jenkins might not be in the school system and ask if they would consider coming to Pottstown without being able to teach under her.

YOUNG CYCLIST HURT IN CRASH

Operator Lands on Head After Vehicle Hits Car, Skids 60 Feet Into Gutter

A young Roversford RD 1 motorcyclist was injured seriously and a middle-aged Pottstown woman incurred minor injuries in two accidents yesterday afternoon, "little more than an hour apart."

Victor Fink, who lost consciousness before he could give Pottstown hospital officials his age, sideswiped an automobile with his motorcycle on Beech street, between Grant and Sheridan streets, at 5:45 p. m.

He was admitted to the Pottstown hospital with a possible skull fracture, a deep cut on the forehead, deep cuts and heavy bruises of the left arm, and shock. His condition last night was described as "fair."

Fink, believed to be in his middle 20's, was driving east on Beech street.

BOZIE RODGERS, of 311 North Franklin street, was driving his automobile west on Beech street, told Motor Patrolman Thomas A. Lawler, that he saw Fink coming directly toward him, but that the Roversford man was looking backward as he drove up the road.

Rodgers said he pulled as far to the right as he could, but that automobiles parked along Beech street prevented him from getting out of the way in time.

Just as he had almost stopped, Fink's motorcycle slammed into the side of the sedan. The cycle careened 60 feet across Beech street, ending up in the southside gutter.

Parking Ban Favored For N. Charlotte Street

J. Max Creswell's police committee, in a secret session last night, decided to recommend to some future meeting of council that parking be banned on North Charlotte street, south of Beech street.

This was learned authoritatively after the meeting, during which a general discussion was held of the long-term traffic survey being made by Burgess William A. Griffith, Police Chief James A. Laughhead and Creswell.

Creswell said late last night that his group discussed police problems in general, adding that "no decisions were made."

During the first part of the meeting in borough hall, to which a Mercury reporter was admitted, bids were opened for the purchase and installation of two new traffic signals — at High and Price streets and at Beech and Hanover streets.

Upon Creswell's suggestion, the group decided that both installations should be made underground.

FOR INSTALLATION, the Bates brothers, of Lansdowne, offered to do both underground jobs for $1066.10, while John W. Snyder, of 27 North Hanover street, bid $1706.26 for both jobs.

No decision was made on the installation, or on the purchase of equipment, for which four identical bids were received.

Three of the bidders, it was explained, were outlets for one large firm, while the fourth submitted bids that were within only a few dollars of them.

The bidders were the Colonial Electric company, of Philadelphia; the Graybar electrical company, of Reading; the Ramsey Electrical company, of Philadelphia, and the Eagle Signal corporation, of Moline, Ill.

For underground equipment and traffic lights at both intersections, bids of $1457.80 were received. If Beech and Hanover streets had been chosen, both jobs would have been $1493.50.

Representatives of both installing and selling firms were present last night to discuss their services and products.

A THIRD ITEM on the police committee agenda was a request by Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer for a new telephone in the police radio room, for fire calls only.

He explained that a separate (Continued on Page Three)

Quota Is Awaited In Bond Campaign

The Pottstown Security Bond campaign will be ready to start as soon as a quota is received from the Montgomery county committee, Charles L. Schulz, chairman, announced yesterday.

Schulz said the organization of the Pottstown committee was checked at a luncheon meeting at the Brookside Country club yesterday and reports were received from committee chairman.

The Rev. George A. Lineker, rector of Christ Episcopal church, has arranged for speakers to appear at all the service clubs during the campaign.

All Pottstown banks and automobile dealers have been organized and letters to industry already are prepared. The letters will be sent as soon as a quota is received.

The drive is scheduled to get underway Tuesday morning.

SWAVELY FINED $100 BY COURT

Former Borough Official Pleads Guilty to Driving Under Influence of Liquor

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, May 28—Ralph L. Swavely, 50, of 386 North Charlotte street, Pottstown, former secretary of the Pottstown Board of Health, paid a $100 fine today after pleading guilty to a drunken driving charge before Judge William F. Dannehower.

Motor Patrolman Robert Houser testified that he arrested Swavely at 5 p. m. on May 15 at High street near Manatwary street.

Before the arrest, Houser said, Swavely's car struck the left rear fender of an auto driven by William F. O'Neill, 19 Walnut street. O'Neill had stopped for a red light at York street, and Swavely's car struck it, turning from York street onto High street, the patrolman testified.

Swavely, who is employed by the Bethlehem Steel company, declared after the accident that he pulled into the nearest parking space. O'Neill did not testify.

JOHN MYERS, Pennsburg, paid a fine of $125 after pleading guilty on charges of drunken driving and being involved in a hit-and-run collision with a parked car.

He was apprehended on Route 20 at Red Hill April 17 by State police of the Collegeville sub-station after allegedly sideswiped a parked car.

Chief of Police Howard Beard, of Pennsburg, testified that he also was searching for Myers when he received a report that the State police had made the arrest.

Birdsboro Youth, 9, Seized by Cramp, Drowns in Quarry

Kenneth Berkley, 9-year-old Birdsboro boy, drowned yesterday afternoon at about 3 o'clock in a water-filled hole at a trap rock quarry in Robeson township, a mile and a half west of Birdsboro.

West Reading State police, who investigated, said they were able to learn little of the accident from the victim's companion, Gerald Kennedy, 13, Birdsboro.

Apparently the boy had been seized by a cramp near shore police said, and was not a strong enough swimmer to reach safety in the water, which is nearly 20 feet deep by the bank and slopes down to 80 feet. The quarry is the property of the John T. Drer Quarry company.

Three Birdsboro men, Louis Watts, Russell Johnson and Robert Murray, used a grappling hook furnished by the State police, and recovered the body at 5:40 o'clock.

Dr. Linton E. March, Birdsboro, pronounced the boy dead, and Harry Carson, Berks county deputy coroner, released the body to a Birdsboro funeral home.

MacArthur Turns Down Offer to Return to U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 28 (P)—General Douglas MacArthur told Congress today that he doesn't want to come home now. Such a journey, he said, would be misunderstood as "politically inspired."

So MacArthur said he would rather postpone his return from Tokyo until after the Republican National convention, which meets June 21 in Philadelphia. He has said previously he would accept the nomination for president if it is offered.

The general replied today to an invitation by the Senate appropriations committee to testify on spending for the Far East. In a telegram to Chairman Bridges (R-NH), MacArthur noted that he already has expressed his views on this subject and that basic policies have been determined.

Bridges, chairman of the appropriations committee, said he would place the MacArthur message before the committee next Tuesday.

"I DON'T BELIEVE the committee will press for his return," he said. "If anything should happen while he was away, I certainly wouldn't want the responsibility of having him back here."

Tied to the Orient since the war by his duties as supreme Allied commander in Japan, the 67-year-old Arkansas native, disclosed in his message that he's homesick. He has not been in the United States since 1937. But he added:

"It would be peculiarly repugnant to me to have it felt that I sought to capitalize to political advantage as many have frankly urged, the public good will which might manifest itself. For such good will would find its inspiration (in the Pacific war victory)."

"Usurpation of such good will by me to serve a political end would be a shameful breach of their faith (that of Americans who took part in the war) and a betrayal of the mutual trust on which was erected the cornerstone to the Pacific victory."

MacARTHUR THUS shattered the hopes of those who felt that the drama of his arrival and public appearance on the eve of the GOP convention might rally delegates to him as a compromise candidate in a deadlock developed in the voting.

Some Southerners, angry because of President Truman's civil rights stand, have even been casting glances at MacArthur as a possible choice on the Democratic ticket.

The general's reply to Congress was in line with his expressed attitude toward the Republican nomination.

He said on March 9 he would run if nominated, but would not campaign for the nomination.

Seven Persons Killed As Transport Plane Crashes During Storm

BATON ROUGE, La., May 28 (P)—A twin engine C-47 Army transport plane crashed during a storm in a corn field 20 miles southwest of here last night killing the seven men aboard.

Wreckage was scattered over at least an acre.

The plane was enroute from New Orleans to its base at Roswell, N. M. P. A. Martin, employee of the Slack Bros. plantation near Rosedale, La., where the crash occurred, said the wreck was not discovered until today because of the storm.

"The plane hit the ground nose first and apparently exploded," he said. "It dug a hole 10 to 15 feet deep and 18 feet wide at the top, as long as the plane."

"It is the worst demolished thing I have ever seen. Pieces of plane and portions of bodies are scattered for hundreds of feet around. There are some portions of the plane in tree tops. The plane itself is in hundreds, not dozens of pieces. There doesn't seem to have been any fire, but the plane apparently exploded as soon as it hit."

National guard operations at New Orleans reported the plane went there yesterday to pick up War Assets administration freight, and took off at 6:30 p. m.

Mourn Slaying as Killer Is Caught

Odom Brings Plane Down in Heavy Fog

BALTIMORE, May 28 (P)—Bill Odom, round-the-world speed flier who has always been lucky at beating fog, brought a big flying boat down to an emergency landing at the head of Chesapeake Bay today.

The 82 Puerto Rican passengers and the 11 members of Odom's crew took it all calmly, but they got hungry when the four-engine Boeing ship was stranded four hours on a mud flat. Fifteen of the passengers were children.

"Too bad we didn't have some fishing tackle," Odom said. "Nothing to do. Just routine."

The plane, operated by World Airways, Inc., left San Juan late yesterday for New York but the flying boat terminal there was closed this morning by fog. Odom circled for an hour and headed for Baltimore. It was soupy here, too.

He signalled the municipal airport control tower that he was landing but the tower lost radio contact and sent out an alarm.

U. S. ATTEMPTS FAIL TO SOLVE RAIL PROBLEM

White House Parleys Non-Productive; New Sessions Are Scheduled

WASHINGTON, May 28 (AP)—The White House tried again today to bring about a settlement of the railroad labor dispute, but made "no progress" in daylong negotiations.

John R. Steelman, presidential assistant, who conferred with both groups, said through a White House spokesman:

"No progress has been made this week."

It was announced, however, that the railroad and union leaders will return to his offices next Tuesday morning. No definite hour has been set.

THE UNION COMMITTEE, which includes spokesmen of the engineers, firemen and switchmen, left the White House at 7:30 p. m. (Pottstown time) and the operator's representatives left ten minutes later. There was no across-the-table bargaining, Steelman said. He conferred with each group separately and did not get them together.

Steelman called leaders of both sides to the White House after Justice T. A. Clark's order that the railroad strike be ended until June 11 the temporary court order that prevented a rail strike.

The White House announced in mid-afternoon that the negotiators were there.

Steelman, a White House spokesman, said, wanted to talk to them about something he "has been working on for some days."

Boy, 14, Confesses Slaying Girl, 8; Says Sex Motive Prompted Killing

CHICAGO, May 28 (P)—Husky, 14-year-old Roy Adams related today he had a sex motive in the suffocation-slaying of an eight year old girl playmate, State's Attorney William J. Tuohy reported.

The boy made the statement to Tuohy and his assistants after admitting the slaying to a coroner's jury.

He said earlier he smothered the girl with a pillow "because she wanted to borrow too many of my comic books."

However, in the later statement to Tuohy, Roy said that when the girl came to his door to borrow the comic books, he told her they were in the bedroom.

THEN, THE STATEMENT added, he followed her into the bedroom and "suddenly had a bright idea." He related that he threw the child face down on the bed, placed a pillow over the back of her head, partly undressed her then committed a sexual act on himself. The child was not raped.

"She screamed for five minutes; then her body went limp," the boy told police.

The victim was curly-haired Nancy Schuler, who lived with her father, stepmother and half sister in a near northwest side apartment. Because of her petite size and cute manners she was known in the neighborhood as "The Little Doll." The Schulers live across the hall from the Adamses.

PHIL BAKER FINED $200 BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., May 28 (P)—Phil Baker, radio master of ceremonies, was fined $200 on a drunk-in-auto charge today by City Judge Charles J. Griffin. The court also ordered Baker to abstain from liquor for a year.

Head of American Communist Party Raps Anti-Red Bill as 'Fascist' Move

WASHINGTON, May 28 (AP)—William Z. Foster, leader of the American Communist party, today attacked a bill designed to curb Communist activities and told Senators his party would not comply if it becomes law.

His blast came in the second day of hearings before the Senate judiciary committee on the Mundt-Nixon bill which already has received a thumping endorsement from the House. Henry A. Wallace, third party presidential candidate, is the headline witness tomorrow.

Foster declared the bill would create a "Fascist police state" and set up a "caste of political untouchables."

"IF THE MUNDT-NIXON bill were to pass, the Communist party would not perjure itself by admitting any resemblance to the monstrous caricature of its nature and purposes drawn in this bill," he said. The measure would establish heavy fines and jail sentences for trying to set up a foreign-controlled totalitarian dictatorship in this country. The Communist party would be required to register annually with the Justice department and furnish the names and addresses of its members. Failure to register, or false registration, would be punishable by up to five years imprisonment and $5000 fine.

Communist fronts likewise would have to register, but they would not have to file membership lists. Communists would be barred from non-elective government positions, and couldn't be granted passports. Their propaganda would have to be labeled as such.

Foster said the Communist party has no intention of exposing its members to "persecution, ostracism and blacklisting in employment" by registering their names. He said that all provisions of the measure "are based on the premise that Hitler's big lie has become the gospel truth by which America must light its way."

Smuts Resigns As Premier of South Africa

CAPETOWN, Union of South Africa, May 28 (P)—Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts, 78-year-old British empire statesman, resigned as premier today and prepared to turn the office over to his successful Nationalist rival in Tuesday's elections.

Smuts

The governor general called to form a new government Dr. Francois Malan, 74, whose Nationalists favor a policy of isolation from British empire affairs and strict segregation of non-Europeans such as Indians and African natives in separate districts, and development of mineral resources under state control.

Smuts, prime minister for 14 years—from 1919 to 1924 and 1939 to 1948—was defeated in a campaign fought mainly on the color issue. His United party and Labor allies won 71 seats in the final results, while the combined Nationalist-Afrikaner opposition added up 79.

Jubilantly the Nationalist press called the overturn a "revolution."

(The London Daily Mail said the election could have "serious repercussions" on imperial defense plans.)

veterans organizations is scheduled for 11 a. m. tomorrow at First Presbyterian church.

An estimated 150 veterans in uniform will march into the church following the choir and will sit massed for the service. A bugler will blow taps after the benediction.

A sermon by the Rev. A. Burtis Hallowell, pastor, will be "That the Desert Might Bloom." The Men's chorus will sing Dekoven's "Recessional," with words from Kipling's famous poem.

Other churches which will pay special recognition to the day tomorrow are Emmanuel and St. James Lutheran, Trinity and St. Paul's Reformed, First Methodist and Trinity Evangelical Congregational churches.

No special services have been scheduled for Monday.

State Supreme Court Rules Against Surgeon

HARRISBURG, May 28 (AP)—The State Supreme court today refused to permit Dr. Henry Julius Schireson to continue practicing plastic surgery while an appeal is pending from revocation of his license.

"That means he has to stop practice right away," said Thomas D. Caldwell, attorney for the Philadelphia plastic surgeon.

The court order climaxed nearly four years of litigation. The State board of medical education and licensure, in 1944, cited Dr. Schireson to show why his license should not be revoked for fraud.

The legal battle first went to Dauphin county court and the State Supreme court on a technical point challenging the board's authority to revoke his license. The surgeon lost out in both courts. The board then revoked the license the past year and the plastic surgeon took an appeal once again to the lower court.

Earlier this week, the Dauphin court upheld the board's action in taking away Dr. Schireson's license on ground that he obtained it in 1910 through fraud and misrepresentation.

Resistance Program
Planned by Czechs

LONDON, May 28 (AP)—Twenty-four members of the pre-Communist Czechoslovakia parliament made a solemn resolution in London today to fight "to restore political freedom" in their homeland.

The fugitive lawmakers, comprising almost a tenth of the 300-member parliament, laid the foundation for what they hope will become a world-wide Czechoslovak resistance movement. But they made it clear they are not trying now to establish a government in exile.

While an observer from the Czechoslovak embassy looked on, the "shadow parliament" declared the present Communist-dominated government in Prague illegal, next Sunday's single ticket election in the house-land invalid, and the Communist - drafted constitution void.

It also declared the Czech alliance with Russia no longer valid since that pact bound Russia not to interfere in Czechoslovakia's affairs.

The members of the group may increase tomorrow. About 14 who had sent word they were coming were unable to attend the first session because of travel difficulties.

FIRE ALARMS —

cluded in the $45,000 price, but that meanwhile, the replacement of the fire alarm system had bogged down.

It would take 60 days after a fire committee meeting for the equipment to be received, Lindauer pointed out. He said that such a committee meeting would be held, possibly in a week.

Although all the equipment in borough hall is in place, and the inter-communication systems among the three fire halls and borough hall now functioning, one other major job remains to be done in addition to the replacement and modernization of the boxes.

That will be the erection of two additional fire horns, preferably at either end of the borough.

No definite location for the horns yet has been found. School building had been suggested, but this was found to be illegal.

CYCLIST HURT —

across the street, he fell at the last moment, landing on his head and arm.

He was taken to the hospital in an ambulance of the Good Will Fire company.

To stop Fink's severe arm bleeding, Lawler applied his "iron claw," a police device ordinarily used to persuade recalcitrant law-breakers to come along.

The instrument became an effective tourniquet until Fink arrived at the hospital.

Rodgers was uninjured in the crash, but the left rear fender and running board of his car were damaged. The motorcycle received only deep scratches and dents in the accident.

AT 5:10 P. M. yesterday, Mrs. Carrie McCullough, 59, of 18 North Hanover street, was knocked to the street by an automobile at High and Hanover streets.

Mrs. McCullough was crossing from the north to the south side of High street on her way to her job at the Shuler house, where she is a dishwasher, when the accident happened.

Taken to Pottstown hospital in a Good Will ambulance, she was treated for brush burns above the left eye and of the left arm, and bumps on the forehead and the back of her head. She was admitted for observation.

MRS. MCCULLOUGH told Motor Patrolman Earl J. Rhoads that she began to cross the street with the light, but as she got halfway across, the signal changed and she was caught in the stream of moving traffic.

Joseph Besel, of Perkiomenville RD 1, the driver, was driving east on High street, and was still in second gear, going only 11-12 miles an hour, when Mrs. McCullough walked in front of him, according to the police report.

She was knocked down by his left front fender and the left headlight were damaged slightly by the impact.

IN THE DAY'S SECOND accident involving a motorcycle, Samuel McKinty, 23, Boyertown, was injured slightly at 8 p. m. when thrown from his cycle in a collision with a car at Route 663 and North Keim street.

Mrs. Ralph Schmol, Boyertown, was driving north on Route 663. At the intersection she started to turn left as the cycle was passing her.

Both car and cycle ended a few feet inside a field diagonally across from Whiteside Inn. The cycle had dents and a leaking gasoline tank. The couple's left front fender was dented, its radiator damaged and its starter jammed. It was towed from the field by the car of El Moyer, South Pottstown.

Joan Slichter, 19, of 461 North Franklin street, who was driving past, took McKinty to Pottstown hospital where he was given dispensary treatment for bruises of the knee and brush burns of the elbow.

Local YMCA to Take Part In Character Study Plan

Pottstown's YMCA has been chosen as one of the eight in the nation to participate in a character education project sponsored by the department of psychology, Union college, Schenectady, N. Y.

Under the project, members of the local Gray-Y club will take a series of psychological tests designed to evaluate their personalities in terms of intellect, leadership and character.

James P. Baird, youth work director, will supervise the testing this summer in the YMCA.

403 More Persons Get
Chest Examinations

With 403 men, women and children going to the YMCA gymnasium to have their chests X-rayed yesterday afternoon and night, the total for the week rose to 1373.

An extra period of examinations will be held today from 1-4 p. m. to take care of those who have been unable to come during the past week.

The cost of the X-ray examination is $1.

BATTLE RAGES —

British - controlled Near East radio quoted a correspondent as describing the battle there as the largest yet fought in the Middle East war.

Both sides have been pouring in reinforcements. Jerusalem dispatches said. Thousands of Arabs and Jews now are reported engaged in the struggle.

EVEN BEFORE THE battle for Jerusalem's old City was decided the Arab legion was reported to have drawn troops out of the Jerusalem area and rushed them to Bab El Wad gorge in an attempt to stem the Jewish attack.

The Jews began the offensive Monday and met a heavy concentration of Arab forces. Belt Jis and Belt Susin fell to the Jewish troops after they swept south of the highway in a flanking move last night.

To open communications to the 80,000 to 90,000 Jews besieged in the modern sections of Jerusalem, the Jews must not only clear Latrun, but also must gain command of the heights overlooking Bab El Wad gorge.

Those to officiate are Walter F. J. Wetherhold, 1143 Queen street; Ambrose G. Lucidi, 43 King street, and John Herb, Penn Village.

The meet will go all day and 80,000 spectators are expected. Trophies are valued at $3500. Contestants from as far away as California have entered the meet, sponsored by the Philadelphia Bulletin.

Radio Chain Is Blamed
In Voice of America Probe

WASHINGTON, May 28 (AP)—A congressional investigator charged today that Voice of America "smear" broadcasts have "the earmarks of deliberate sabotage." But a radio official said no evidence of sabotage had been found.

The accusation was hurled by Rep. Chenoweth (R-Colo.) during an investigation of broadcasts which, many legislators said, slandered American states and customs.

The National Broadcasting company, through Vice President Charles E. Denny, took a share of the blame for the broadcasts.

"We are not ducking responsibility," he said, and then declared that his company has no evidence of any sabotage attempt.

It was rather a cessation of war than a beginning of peace. —Tacitus.

Memorial Day

MEMORIAL DAY dates from 1868, when Gen. John A. Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, called upon members to decorate soldiers' graves with flowers on May 30. The custom spread rapidly, for it was a simple and satisfying tribute to the dead.

As the nation grew older, the observance came naturally to include those who fought in later wars. This year the rituals of the day are being observed not only on green slopes all across these states, but in several countries of Europe and in many islands of the Pacific.

Wherever the soldiers and sailors of America lie in their last sleep there the Memorial Day tradition becomes established.

The holiday has a wide appeal because it touches us closely. Almost every family in the land is somehow connected with a military grave, and the experience of the day both inspires and humbles us.

The year is at its best, fresh with renewal. Lilacs are in bloom—one of the best loved and most common of flowers. Amid the beauties of nature, the individual finds new hope.

From the example of military heroes he gains strength. But all are humbled in the presence of death, the greater leveler which in the end treats privates and generals alike.

Memorial day is the holiday of the common people, which on analysis all of us are. Soon, as the universe measures time, the wind will pass over and we will be gone. Yet it is heartening to speculate that each May the fields will be green again, that lilacs will bloom in the dooryard, and that democracy will live on because America has young men who are willing to die to perpetuate our way of life.

Happy Birthday

Yvonne Cecil Annette Emilie Marie

YESTERDAY was the anniversary of a "world event" that brought with it no calamities or regrets.

This was the birth of the Dionne quintuplets. The wave of interest in these babies was evidence of the possibilities of human kindness and what has been called "patronism of the species." Contemplating the Dionne youngsters, all human beings did feel akin.

The youngsters were 14 years old yesterday. What is their future? A life insurance company figures it thusly:

The chances are 97 in 100 that all five will reach marriageable age, three in five that all will reach 50, and one in five that all will celebrate their 65th birthday.

These, of course, are average expectations, and the Dionnes may do far better than the average. So indeed may the average 14-year-olds, if science keeps up its present pace.

Despite the dark elements in the future outlook, a great many men and institutions are working hard to make the world a place in which to live longer and better.

Thought for Memorial Day

VETERANS organizations the other day placed bright, new US flags on veterans' graves in preparation for Memorial Day services. Those "crosses row on row" aroused a feeling of wonderment at the human race.

We conduct annual memorial services to express our grief for the blood sacrifices in wars caused by prejudice, greed, cruelty and injustice.

Yet, generation after generation, we are unwilling to sacrifice our prejudices, abandon our greed, suppress our cruelty or correct injustices to prevent the blood sacrifices we mourn.

PUNKIN CORNERS, May 28.

READERS SAY:

He'll Harness Energy;

War Dead Forgotten

By MERCURY READERS

Letters must not be more than 250 words long, of current topics and must not involve personalities. Writers must sign their names and give street address as evidence of good faith but these will be withheld from publication on request. It is a criminal offense to sign another person's name. Poetry, and communications advocating the election of political candidates are not acceptable.

Way Out for Johann and Kids

To the Editor: I've been reading the letters in the Readers Say column lately about the kids who can't find anything else to do, so they make noise for the neighbors, and the young Romeo who want to fit around a dance floor.

I can't find any better reason for the borough to buy the old opera house, tear it down and build a community center than to harness all this wasted energy. It's our duty and we might as well face it.

We'd be mighty sorry if our kids started toying with atom bombs just to see how much noise they'd make. Or if "Johann Strauss," his patience exhausted, grabbed one of our fair maidens and started to wait in the middle of the High and Hanover intersection some Friday night about 8 o'clock.

Employing the latest acoustical developments, a community center could absorb all the noise that could be marshaled in the younger generation of Pottstown.

And Johann could dance, romance, marry up and raise that next generation to help pay for the building. Pottstown PEDRO

Draft Dodgers Steal Glory

To the Editor: While I thoroughly agree with the one who signs himself "Veteran," (Readers Say, May 26), how does he think we Gold Star parents feel as we await the arrival of our sons' bodies? Boys who had everything to live for.

Don't think our blood doesn't boil when we see smug, able-bodied draft dodgers around town, who had nothing the matter with them but a yellow streak. They are respected while our sons are forgotten.

Happy Memorial Day! Every day is Memorial Day with us, but who cares? —nobody. Pottstown MOTHER

This Is the Year for Voters

To the Editor: Voters, you with the power of a great nation, this is your year. So you think the government is run wrong, even perhaps the attitude towards the U. N. questionable, or maybe Congress is not just so. Okay, this year more than any other time, you can put that almighty vote that you possess to uphold your ideas; so don't waste your power. Be at the polls in November and put it to use to hold up the principles of democracy. Gilbertsville CITIZEN

OBEY I RESECH THEE, THE VOICE OF THE LORD, WHICH I SPEAK UNTO THEE: SO IT SHALL BE WELL UNTO THEE, AND THY SOUL SHALL LIVE. Jeremiah 38:20

YOU DO NOT POSSESS THE OBEY-ENT SPIRIT OF JESUS WHICH IS THE ONLY WAY TO HAPPINESS, AND THE HONOR OF OUR NATION WHEN YOU:

Think ordinary unredeemed man can organize redeemed communities.

Think we can separate our economic life and set it apart as a thing by itself, something to be governed by "laws" of its own.

Have an idea that in your own strength you can fear God and keep His commandments.

Fail to realize that obedience to spiritual law fixed your life in the Kingdom of God.

Say "Lord, Lord," and do not the Lord's will.

Do not love Him nor keep His commandments, say one thing with your lips and another by your life.

Have not fully learned to trust Him, therefore lack confidence in yourself, becoming overwhelmed by life's bewilderingments.

Think goodness and truth are to be treated as secret treasures to be kept hidden away in your soul's inner life.

Refuse to allow God to carry your burdens.

In the days of your adversity run to drugs, to drink, to indulgences, to dreadful excesses instead of religion.

YOUR WORDS AND DEEDS BEAR WITNESS THAT YOU ARE TRULY CHRIST'S DISCIPLE WALKING OBEDIENTLY IN THE WAY OF HIS COMMANDMENTS WHEN YOU:

Love and trust Him completely.

Are reverent and humble.

Are possessed of a forgiving spirit.

Love all people.

Have a world outlook.

Realize that a Christian Economic Program calls for total obedience to Him.

Realize obedience is one of the first laws of life and determines our fitness for service and our worthiness for trust.

Have learned the lesson of obedience by the things which you suffer.

Realize heaven has no room for the disobedient.

Realize that to obey is better than sacrifice.

Seek daily to do God's will from your heart and count it a God-given privilege to be a fellow-worker with Christ.

Cast all your fear and care upon God and let His mighty by your shield and weapon against whatever evil awaits you daily.

Share your life generously with others.

Have a sincere daily response to His call to the inner life of faith and trust.

GOP Legislators Play

Cagy on Social Welfare

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, May 28 — Although almost 200 members of the House have signed their support of Dr. Francis Townsend's revolving money plan, the Republican leadership in that body seems willing to permit President Truman to steal the social welfare issue from them in the 1948 presidential campaign.

By the same token, they may make votes for Henry A. Wallace, inasmuch as the good, gray doctor is one of his leading supporters.

The 176 signatures on the petition demanding a vote on the Townsend Plan do not mean that this number of members would line up for the scheme if it reached a floor showdown. They have expressed approval because they know that there is no chance of a nose-counting test, and, therefore, they are safe in giving lip service. They are making this gesture solely to appease the old folks and win their support.

But the demonstration does not reflect these men's recognition that improvement of the lot of the aged, the unfortunate and low-income groups oppressed by worry over their economic future has become an extremely important political issue. Aside from those who will vote for him as the self-appointed apostle of peace, many millions will undoubtedly plump for Mr. Wallace because he voices their yearnings and needs.

BENEFITS: The resurgence of the Townsend bloc on Capitol Hill epitomizes the growing belief that the Federal Government should shore up such props of our social and economic structure as education, health and housing. There is also a demand for broadening and increasing unemployment insurance, old age and survivors payments and similar benefits.

But, with Congress turning into the home stretch toward a mid-June adjournment, it appears that this problem altogether. Regardless of the dispute over the merits of these proposals, many Republican leaders fear that they are handing a popular and ready-made issue to President Truman.

CHANCE: Quarterback Truman has detected this wide hole on the left side of his opponents' political line, and he intends to sneak through it with the social security bill for a presidential touchdown, if possible. That is the explanation for the recent White House announcement that he will send another message to Congress asking for larger Social Security benefit payments for a larger number of beneficiaries.

As a former member of the Senate, Mr. Truman knows that there is no chance for Congressional action between now and scheduled adjournment on June 19 at the latest. So, his pre-adjournment demand will amount to no more than a gesture.

JOBS UPON A TIME

Fred Astaire retired after his 20th Hollywood picture, but he didn't stay that way. He's back on the screen and has his own dance studios. Fred began taking dancing lessons when he was five with his sister Adele (now Lady Cavendish).

Two years later they began their professional career. They made their bow on Broadway when Fred was 17. When Adele married and broke up the team, Fred went it alone, winning new honors. He did a film, "Flying Down to Rio," with Ginger Rogers. The two made seven movies after that. Fred was born in Omaha, Neb., married a Boston socialite and has one son, Fred Jr., and a daughter.

Academy Award winner Ray Milland, born in Wales, attended public school, then King's college at Cardiff, and was accepted into the Household Cavalry, King's Royal Guards. In the Guards Ray became its second best boxing champion and a good horseman and expert marksman. Later he worked as extra at a moving picture studio, where, after a few minor roles, he was spotted by a movie scout and went to Hollywood. His most spectacular role for which he won an "Oscar," was in "The Lost Weekend," where he played a drunk.

MODERN MANNERS

If a bridegroom has no brother to serve as best man, or his best friend is not available, his father, or step-father may serve.

IT HAPPENED TODAY

The Turks forced the fall of Constantinople on this date in 1453. The American patriot, Patrick Henry, was born May 29, 1736.

On May 30, 1901, the Hall of Fame for noted Americans was formally opened in New York City. May 30, 1885, was the date of William Penn's treaty with the Indians involving a large part of Pennsylvania.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Comedian Bob Hope. Actress Beatrice Lillie. Erich Korngold, composer and conductor, and Tony Zale, boxer, have birthdays today.

May 30 birthday anniversary: celebrants are Benjamin Goodman, orchestra leader; Actress Cornelia Quinn Skinner, and James Farley, former United States postmaster general.

"DOLLARIUM DREAMS"

YEAH, I KNOW, BUT I WANT IT ANYWAY!

LAY OFF THE STUFF, IT KILLS!

By EDITH GWYN

HOLLYWOOD, May 28—Latest actor to get the bug to produce his own pictures is Richard Greene and what's more he now has the financing to do just that. When he finishes emoting with Douglas Fairbanks in "The O'Flynn," he'll finish his own original screen-play of "The Late Renaissance," and star himself in it. Fairbanks, at that point, will be leaving for England with his Mary Lee and their kids. Doug, in association with J. Arthur Rank, will make a super production of "The Knights of the Round Table," a six million dollar venture! and they expect to be making it for almost two years! Look Magazine is busy doing quite some boosting for Hollywood. It has just completed work on a color slide-film (combining photos and animation) called "Our Growing West," a visual condensation of facts about the growth of the 11 western states since the war that will startle a lot of know-it-alls. The movie industry is credited with being one of the greatest contributors to the economy of the entire west. It will first be shown to the Advertisers Convention in San Francisco and then go to other Ad Clubs, colleges, High Schools.

ALAN YOUNG and his bride, Virginia McCurdy, will finally get that honeymoon — but not until Fall after the comic finishes "Chicken Every Sunday" and "Sweet Sue" at Fox. He'll also do a humorous piece for Liberty in the meantime. Wanda Hendrix is taking her first driving lessons. George "Gaby" Hayes is the new character star to have his own comic book. Fawcett's are putting it out. Gene Autrey and Roy Rogers already have theirs on the stand. A Francis Ford movie, the whole kit and kaboodle of her home to Connecticut next Saturday — to join Henry in the East for at least a year.

AS A REWARD FOR the great job she did with "I Remember Mama," Harriet Parsons has just been handed the Nancy Hale novel, "The Prodigal Woman" to produce at R. K. O. . . . If you were confused listening to "Walk Alone" on the Lux Theatre of the Air the other night, think nothing of it. So was everybody else—especially those in the studio audience. Burt Lancaster, starring in it, misunderstood show call-time, and after rehearsal he just wandered off into the night for a sandwich! When he got back, the play was halfway into the first act, with Doug Chandler subbing for him. After the first musical bridge, Lancaster stepped into his role.

3000-MILE HIKE — Joseph Hospador, son of Andrew Hospador, and Gerald D. Levensgood, son of John Levensgood, Stowe, started on a 3000-mile hike to the Pacific coast. Each carried a small pack on his back and each had a small amount of cash. They depend on securing hops in trucks and motor cars.

LOSES EYE — One year after he was struck in the left eye by a baseball, John Mondick, 459 Cherry street, had the optic removed at the Homeopathic hospital. The eye was blinded by the blow and six months later a tumor developed.

NO-HIT GAME — Earl Scheidt, of St. Peter's Lutheran team in the Sunday School league, held the First Baptist team hitless and runless. The final score was 10 to 0.

Churches Arrange Special Services; Students to Sing

Memorial Day will be observed in local churches tomorrow with appropriate ceremonies.

In the Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed, a service dedicated to those who died during the past year will be held at 10:15 a. m.

A group of nine girls under the direction of Ida M. Reinert, director of vocal music in the local schools, will sing in the Adult Bible class of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Sunday school tomorrow at 9 a. m.

They are Patsy Frey, Affie Haddad, Mary Jane Nagel, June Rose, Betty Reinert, Catherine Reinert, Helen Mae Specht, M. Jane Mercer and Joyce Gilbert. The group will sing "Memorial Song" and "Flag of Our Land."

AWARDS TO MEMBERS of the Junior choir of the church will be made tomorrow in the Lutheran Adult class at 9 a. m. They will be made by Mrs. Harold B. Kelm, director. Among the awards will be 15 pins for one year's attendance, 10 common service books for two years, 11 Bibles for three years, and five revised standard Bibles for four year's perfect attendance.

Members of F. and A. M. Lodge 741, of Boyertown, will attend the morning service in the Lutheran church at 10:15 o'clock. Memorial Day and I Am-an-American-Day will be incorporated at this time.

Daniel Zuber, a past commander of the local American Legion post, will be guest speaker in the Young People's Bible class in the Lutheran church tomorrow at 9 a. m.

Protest Against Sale Of Company Delayed

The hearing on a petition for determination of compensation of appraisers and counsel in the Mountain Telephone company litigation was continued until Wednesday by President Judge H. Robert Mays.

The postponement was occasioned by the announcement by Edward D. Trovler Jr., attorney for the complainants, that John E. Walsh Jr., of Philadelphia, chief counsel for Henry H. Schultz Jr., and others, was unable to be in court this week.

Schultz and others object to the sale of the company's assets to Conestoga Telephone and Telegraph company for $81,000. Mark C. McQuillen, attorney, represents the company while Paul D. Edelman is counsel for the appraisers.

Traffic Mark Seen for Holiday Weekend; Special Tribute Planned for War Dead

The first long Summer weekend will get under way today as Boyertownians observe Memorial Day.

For many, it will be a weekend crammed with trips on overcrowded highways. If weather is favorable, Monday might set a new postwar vehicle traffic record through Boyertown's main streets.

The local post office will be closed all day Monday, although the lobby will be open to box holders from morning until 5 p. m. There will be no window service, and no deliveries, except special deliveries, will be made on either town or rural routes. One mail will arrive at 9 a. m. and another will immediately depart at that time.

Banks, the State liquor store, the borough offices and schools will all be closed for the day. Buses to and from Allentown, Reading and Pottstown will operate on Sunday schedule.

BOYERTOWN OFFICIALLY will observe the day with a street parade and special memorial exercises in both Fairview and Union cemeteries on Monday. Marchers will form at the high school at 9:30 a. m. and the parade will move at 10 a. m., going west on Philadelphia avenue to Fairview cemetery where Judge Warren K. Hess will deliver the main address.

In addition to Judge Hess' remarks, the following program will be held at Fairview cemetery: invocation, the Rev. David F. Longacre, pastor, St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church; singing of national anthem by assemblage, accompanied by Boyertown High school band under direction of Paul S. Hansen Jr.; remarks, Robert Horn, commander, Boyertown Post 3487, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Harry E. Mauger, commander, Charles B. Yerger Post 471, American Legion.

Music, chorus under the direction of Ida M. Reinert, of the High school; prayer, the Rev. W. F. Bowers, pastor of Trinity Evangelical Congregational church; address, Judge Mess; music by chorus; benediction, the Rev. Harper L. Schneek, pastor, Church of the Good Shepherd, Evangelical and Reformed; salute, VFW firing squad, and taps, Legion drum and bugle corps.

Marching in the parade, which will halt briefly at the cemetery near the National Bank and Trust company to fire a salute there, will be the High school band, the Legion drum and bugle corps, Boy and

Borough Students Await Last Holiday Before Term Ends

Boyertown school kids will get their last vacation of the present year Monday when all three borough schools will be closed in Memorial Day observance.

Even though it's the final holiday of the year, the students aren't sorry because Memorial Day always is the harbinger of Summer vacation, which begins officially at noon Wednesday this year.

Teachers will be in school Tuesday but the students won't. Instructors will be busy preparing final records, giving the rooms a final touch and preparing those all-important documents, "promotion" certificates.

PUPILS OFFICIALLY will come to school once more this term, on Wednesday at 8:40 a. m. In the high school the annual activities awards day will be observed when students will receive athletic and other awards earned in activities during the past year.

Following the student assembly, pupils in the high school will return to their homerooms to receive their records for the year. Then "school" will be out, officially for Boyertown's 1000 youngsters.

Theater Party Planned For School Children

The Upper New Berlinville primary grades will be entertained at a theater party this afternoon in the local theater by their teacher, Ann Renninger, of Boyertown.

Attending will be Joan Gross, Dolores Hess, Gloria Hess, Dorothy Leister, Barbara Moyer, Shirley Wolfgang, Eugene Rothenberger, Joyce Bohn, Barbara Mathias, Barbara Miller, Betty Lou Miller, Marguerite Schwenk, Sandra Stofflet, George Clouser, Neil Gilbert, David Henry, Ronald Johnson, Dallas Leister, Ruth Ann Angstadt, Barbara Madonna, Leverage Boyer and Richard Frey.

Also Martin Kauffman, Russell Miller, Harold Moyer, Lynwood Moyer, Janice Boyer, Doris Moyer, Leah Moyer, Lena Moyer, Joan Swavely, David Frain, Robert Frain, Donald Frey, Laverne Henry, John Lamp Heydt, Charles Leister, Arthur Miller, Robert Minner and their teacher, Miss Renninger.

Assistance Sought By Parade Committee

An appeal for assistance in working out parade details for the Zone 6 fireman's parade on Saturday, June 5, in Bally was made last night by Warren "Red" Knode, chairman of the committee in charge.

Knode said those interested should report to the firehouse in Bally Monday night at 7 o'clock. Work to be done includes such things as preparation of signs and erection of stands. The parade next week will mark the housing of the host company's new pumper. Firemen from more than a dozen Berks fire companies were expected to be in line of march.

AROUND THE WORLD THROUGH CAMERA'S EYE

SURVIVOR OF WORLD WAR II and Bikini atom bomb tests, the U. S. S. Salt Lake City is pictured (top) as it was struck by two torpedoes from submarines attached to Vice-Admiral G. D. Murray's First Task Force Fleet during exercises off the coast of San Diego, Cal. Below, the ship keels over after weathering more than four hours of heavy bombardment from air, surface and submarine craft.

COLOGNE BRIDGE REBUILT— This is new Cathedral Bridge over Rhine River at Cologne, rebuilt to replace Hohenzollern Bridge which was blown up by retreating Germans in 1945. Parts of old bridge lie in river in background. Cologne Cathedral is at left.

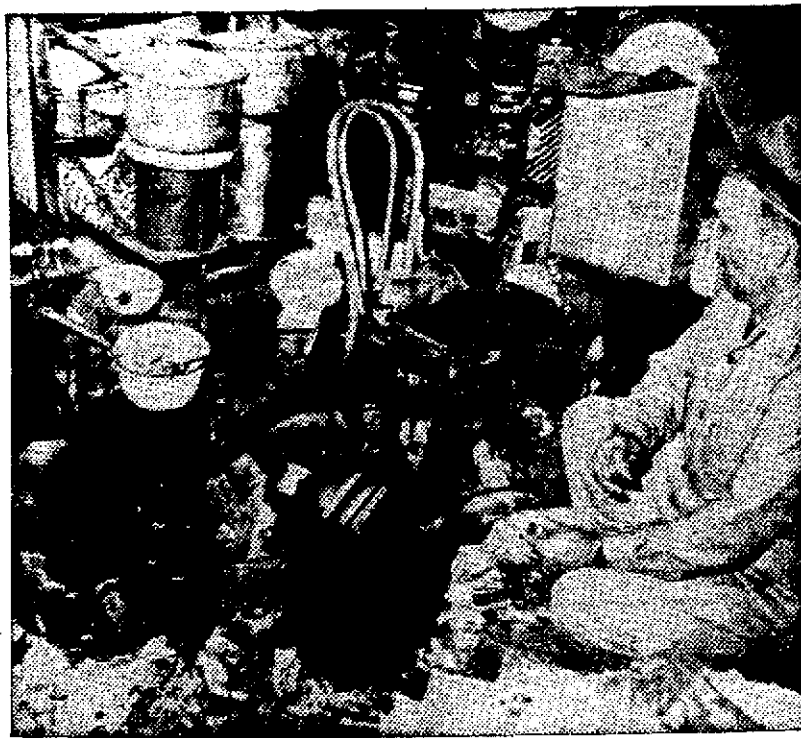

SEATED ON THE FLIGHT DECK of the carrier Valley Forge, little Tommy Hellenk, 4, gazes in awe at the fighter planes spread out before him. The boy was one of hundreds of visitors who went aboard the giant 20,000-ton flattop which is anchored off a New York City dock. The warship is part of a task force which recently returned from a tour that included stops at many of the trouble spots around the globe.

GREAT DANE "DIANA" seems to be enjoying the joke with her mistress, model June Lockwood, as they look over a clause in a lease which foiled an eviction notice. The landlord wanted June to leave her Chicago apartment because of "Diana," but a court ruled that possession of one dog, even though he is a big one, did not violate the section of the lease which forbids keeping "Animals, birds or reptiles."

Attorney McComber ducks.

This amazing rubbish collection littered kitchen.

WEDGEWOOD GOBLET and DECAYING FOOD were among an amazing litter of junk, garbage, rare books and works of art—plus four dogs and six kittens—found by San Francisco health authorities when they invaded the apartment of Lloyd McComber, 65-year-old attorney. One official asserted, "Worst thing I've seen in all my years." McComber promised an immediate cleanup.

PEASANT PARADE— Carrying imitation sticks, peasant girls parade in Prague on 10th anniversary of the freedom of Czechoslovakian farmers from serfdom.

MILK FOR AN-ADDAX— Helen Martin feeds a week-old addax, first of its kind to be born in the Bronx, N. Y. An addax comes from Africa and has twisted horns. The only other addax in the U.S. is in a zoo at Chicago.

WHILE HIS MOTHER, Mrs. William Bazarewski, and Doctor Henry Schmittman look on, one-year-old Christopher Bazarewski studies himself carefully in a mirror at the Beth-El Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., and admires his nose once again. Fifty stitches were needed to save the youngster's nose when a seltzer bottle exploded in front of him.

"LET'S EAT" is the theme song of the triplet sons born to Mr. and Mrs. Stephan W. Gurasich of Los Angeles. Each of the triplets (l to r.), Stephan, William and John, has a different feeding time. They keep their fifteen-month-old sister, Joan, busy watching the clock to see which one of them is to be fed next.

BEAUTY AND PET— Margery Mehl, 20, of Pittsburgh plays with her pet lamb on campus at Middlebury, Vt., College where she was chosen prettiest co-ed during Junior Week-end.

FAMILY BUS— Standing in front of the bus in which they plan a vacation trip is the John Bell family of Ellendale, N. D. Left to right: Emil, Winston, Franklin, Lois, Leonard, Douglas, Alexander, Dulcie, Lenora, Grace, Joan, Dauna, Robert, Fred, Mrs. and Mr. Bell. North Dakota officials have ruled that Bell must pay $32 for a license to operate the machine.

TWELVE-YEAR-OLD Glenwood "Glenny" Brann, Jr., shows his new right artificial limb to his brother, "Dickie," 10, at their Malden, Mass., home. Glenwood had to have his legs amputated because of burns suffered when playmates set his clothes afire in a game of cowboys and Indians. He was fitted with the new "legs" at Shriners' Hospital.

"ARKANSAS LADY" proudly poses with her twin colts, a rarity in the horse world, at a farm in Zellenople, Pa. The twins will be exhibited with their mother at the Allegheny County Fair in September. The horses are owned by R. J. Cunningham.

Episcopal Rector Addresses Members Of Ladies Auxiliary

Rev. George Lineker, rector of Christ Episcopal church, using "Missions" as his topic, addressed members of the Women's Auxiliary of the church in the home of Miss Elizabeth Yergey, 71 North Charlotte street, Thursday night.

During his discussion, the Rev. Lineker pointed out that the whole of christian civilization and religion is centered around missions and because of this the church must go out and preach the gospel as Christ instructed his followers to do. A church is only as alive as its mission field is large and the day that the mission field shortens, is the day when both religion and civilization will fade.

He closed with the thought that the church must wake up to its responsibility as far as missionary work is concerned.

During the brief business session it was decided to hold a one-day rummage sale on Friday, June 18, in the Parish House. Anyone having articles to contribute are asked to contact Mrs. Ira Slough-ton, 231-W.

Those attending were: Misses Jean and Elizabeth Bassett, Mrs. Ernest Breneman, Mrs. Ira Stroung-ton, Mrs. Melvin Pierce, Mrs. Holland Merrick, Mrs. Webster Schi-lott, Mrs. Joseph Feeney, the host-ess, Miss Elizabeth Yergey and the Rev. Lineker.

Surprise Shower Held For Miss Anne Chiavarole

A surprise miscellaneous shower was given for Miss Anne Chiavarole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chiavarole, 401 Fifth avenue, Royersford, at the home of Mrs. John Lysoy, 463 Main street, Royersford.

The decorations were in the form of an umbrella with streamers to which the gifts were attached. Following the playing of games refreshments were served.

Those attending were: Mrs. Han-nah James, Mrs. Martha Gumm, Spring city; Mrs. Helen Walsh, Phoenixville; Miss Frances Van Horn, Pottstown; Mrs. Ruth Owens, Mrs. Evelyn Raquet, Mrs. Mary Mar-shall, Mrs. Betty Chuck, Mrs. Han-nah Burkett, Miss Helen Keiter, Miss Tina Chiavarole, Miss Tom Chiavarole, all of Royersford.

The hostesses were: Mrs. Florence James, Mrs. Evelyn Frick, Mrs. Jack Sysoy, Miss Grace Siller, Miss Josie Latschaw and the guest of honor, who will become the bride of Mr. William Kelly, June 19.

Helen Palmer to Head Hood Alumnae Group

Mrs. Helen Palmer was elected president of the Hood college club at a meeting of the organization at the home of Mrs. Milton Fritsche, Sycamore Farms, recently.

Miss Peggy Anne Morris was elected vice president, with Miss Carolyn Longacre, secretary, and Mrs. Howard Kosman, treasurer.

During the business session which preceded the election, Mrs. Joseph Lynch presided. Mrs. Helen Palmer, chairman of the ways and means committee reported the success of the recent rummage sale, with plans already under way for another in the fall.

Miss Elizabeth Kloppe was chair-man of the nominating committee which presented the slate.

PSHS Juniors to Hold Annual Senior Prom in Sunnysbrook Ballroom

The annual Junior Prom of the Pottstown Senior High school will be held Monday night in the Sunnysbrook ballroom with music furnished by Clyde Walton and his orchestra from 9 to 12 o'clock.

This semi-formal prom is always a gala affair and is one of the most looked forward to events of the high school pupils. Letters have been sent to pupils of many of the surrounding schools, inviting them to the dance.

On this night the seniors will be the guest of the Juniors. Sponsors of the class are Miss Alma Klink and Mr. Earl L. Strange.

Rosemarie Boughier, Opal Reid and Marlene Gray are on the ticket committee; Irene Corbett, Helen Derstine, Mary Lou Wanner, Gerry Marchione and Mary Jane Oakes are on the publicity committee; David Towers is in charge of the programs. Sponsors of the Juniors are Mrs. Mildred Huitt and Mr. Bert-ran Scanlin.

Clarence Dotterer And Helen Beitler United in Marriage

Helen Weller Beitler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Weller, 384 South Reading avenue, Boyer-town and Mr. Clarence Schwenk Dotterer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wil-ham H. Dotterer, Swamp, were united in marriage recently in St. John's Lutheran church with the Rev. David F. Longacre, pastor, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Harold B. Keim presided at the organ with Richard Gene Weiss presenting vocal selections.

The bride was gowned in pink crepe with white accessories and carried a white bible topped with an orchid. Serving as maid of honor was Miss Ruth A. Weller, sister of the bride who selected a powder blue crepe with a corsage of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Charles O. Dotterer performed the duties of the best man.

Immediately following the wedding a reception was held for the newlyweds at the Dotterer home-stead.

The bride is a graduate of the Boyertown High school class of 1949, and is employed at the United Underwear mills, Boyertown. The bridegroom is employed at Bethle-hem Steel, Pottstown.

Miss Muriel K. Prutzman To Become Bride Today

Today at 2 o'clock, Miss Muriel Katherine Prutzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Houston, 518 North Franklin street, will become the bride of the Rev. Robert Clyde Pike, son of Mrs. Elsie Pike, 418 North York street, in the First Methodist church.

The Rev. Horace N. Olewiler will officiate at the double ring ceremony, while music will be provided by Mrs. Jeanne Lepperd, organist, and Mrs. Helen Myers, soloist.

Maid of honor for Miss Prutzman will be her sister, Mrs. Jane Springer, while bridesmaids will be Mrs. Cath-erine Smith and Mrs. Grace Kovato.

Mr. Norman Smith will perform the duties of best man, and Messrs. Jack Springer and George Prutz-man will act as ushers.

A reception will be held follow-ing the ceremony at the Howard Johnson restaurant.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keim and son, Randall, and Frank Keim, of Pottstown RD 2, are spending a vacation in Florida.

The Rev. and Mrs. Clayton J. Bates, of East Nantmeal and Bethesda Baptist churches, re-turned recently from a motor trip. The Rev. Bates attended the General Association of Regu-lar Baptists convention at Grand Rapids, Mich., while Mrs. Bates and the children visited her brother, who lives in Chicago. On the way home, they also visited in Follansbee, W. Va.

Advice to the Lovelorn

Maturity Important in Marriage

Dear Miss Fairfax:

About a year ago I fell deeply in love with a fellow eleven years my senior. Sometimes he shows such affection toward me that I think he feels the same way. But one night we had a long talk in which he said there could never be anything between us because of the difference in our ages. I just can't seem to convince him that this does not matter.

I cannot go on like this, loving him so much with him feeling as he does. Please advise me.

Spring City "BLUE"

Dear "Blue":

Since you don't say how old you are, it would be pretty difficult for me to form an opinion as to whether 11 years' difference in your ages is important or not. If, for example, you happen to be 20, and the man 31, this age difference might matter more than if you were 25 or 26 and he was 36 or 37. The point is, of course, that the older a girl is, the less such an age difference matters. If, however, a girl is unusually mature at 20 or thereabouts, a man of 30 or so might not be too old for her, since the success of any marriage depends to a very large degree on whether or not a man and a woman have reached approximately the same point of maturity.

If this man has no real intention of marrying you, and has told you so, however, you are foolish to let him hang around, no matter how much you may like him. It is not fair of him to monopolize you and keep you from making friends who might be other matrimonial prospects, and you shouldn't let him do it.

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am 17, and I have been going out pretty steadily with a boy of the same age for about six months.

About a year ago, he was going with a girl who moved away, and he has not seen her since. He says he is still in love with her. Do you think a boy of his age could be in love with a girl and still be in love with her after a year of not seeing her? From what I have heard of the girl, I don't think she is too suitable for him. How can I open his eyes without having him think I'm doing it to get him interested in me? I don't care for myself, because I believe that a girl of my age can't really love any boy.

Pottstown RD 2 "PUZZLED"

Dear "Puzzled":

Of course you're doing it for yourself, and you might just as well realize and admit this frankly. No girl is going to care who a boy likes, whether suited to him or not, unless she is very much interested in him.

It would be very bad tactics, however, for you to try and "open his eyes," as you put it, to what you consider the faults of this other girl. Nothing makes a boy think so little of a girl as to hear her run down another girl.

As to your other question, I think it extremely unlikely that a boy of this age could be "in love" with anybody, and I think the same about a girl of your age. Why not be sensible about all this, and be satisfied to be just good friends with this boy?

Dear Miss Fairfax:

I am 12 years old, but very developed for my age. I have fallen deeply in love with a man of 28 who is married and has one child, and he has returned my love in a very definite manner.

I know I am doing wrong, for I have seen his child and she is very cute, and his wife seems to be a very nice lady. He tells his wife he works late, and as my mother works at night, she doesn't know I meet him. He says he fights with his wife all the time, and that I am the only one he really loves.

I really am not a bad girl. I have tried, but I can't help loving such a nice guy. Of course he doesn't know my real age. I have told him I am almost 17.

Should I stop seeing him, or

Fighting to Lift 'Iron Curtain'

should I not worry about anything and just have fun?

"VERY WORRIED"

Dear "Very Worried":

This is not a situation in which to "have fun," but one about which you should tell your mother at once. If you are as mature for your age as you think, you must know that it is not only wrong for you to meet this man as you are doing, but very wrong indeed for him to let you do it. No "nice guy" would take advantage of your circumstances in being alone at night while your mother is away from home.

I am not blaming you for this unfortunate business, as it is understandable that you are lonely in the absence of your mother and feel safer and happier with an older person around. But the state of affairs you describe is something that should be stopped immediately, and even though you are afraid your mother will be angry, you still should confide in her and let her handle the matter. If you don't, I am very much afraid the day will come when you will wish you had.

Eleven Graduated At School Exercises In South Coventry

Eleven upperclassmen were graduated from the South Coventry Consolidated school Thursday night, combining Commencement and Class Night activities in one program.

The Eighth graders held their ceremonies in the school's auditorium, decorated colorfully in rainbow hues.

They heard the Rev. John B. Frantz, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, tell them:

"Live up to what you really are, and not to what people think you are," as he pointed out the difference between character and reputation.

He told the class that for centuries, the older generation shook their heads sadly as they worried about the anches of the younger, and that they should "think tall, smile tall and be tall."

His talk was planned to fit in with the class motto, "Last Stop, Success."

THE VALEDICTORIAN, Donald Wily, received a PTA award from Bryce Manthorne.

Nancy Weidman was the salutatorian, while the talent awards, for ability in singing, dancing and music, went to Gwen Manthorne and Wayne Fulmer.

Other roles in the exercises were played by Barbara Brockerman, historian; Lillian Hatcher, who gave the commencement data on the class flower, motto and song, and Dolores Bates, the class statistician.

The class poem, "No Foolin'," was read by Helen Read, while the class will was read by Dorothy Kuntzleman.

The Girls' Glee club, consisting of Seventh and Eighth grade students, sang a program of music.

The class prophecy was acted out by Gwen Manthorne and Wayne Fulmer.

GIFTS, APPROPRIATE to each member of the graduating class, were distributed by Thomas Bishop and Henrietta Kulyski.

Diplomas were handed out by the president of the school board, Charles Fries.

The principal, Elwood Potts, received a shaving set from the graduates, and Mrs. Florence Manthorne, commencement adviser and music teacher, received a white handbag.

The class song was written by Gwen Manthorne.

The class roll included Donald Wily, president; Henrietta Kulyski, vice president; Gwen Manthorne, secretary; Nancy Weidman treasurer; and Dorothy Kuntzleman, Helen Read, Lillian Hatcher, Dolores

Intelligent America Learns From Past, Pastor Tells Pupils

America and Americans go forward intelligently by looking backward and heeding the lessons of the past, the Rev. A. Burtis Hallock Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, told Pottstown Senior High school students yesterday.

The Rev. Hallock spoke at the students formed at a special Memorial Day assembly to honor the nation's heroic dead.

Comparing their sacrifice in the cause of freedom to the mountaineers who gave their lives in the conquest of Mt. Everest, he declared:

"We have left too many of our comrades on the heights ever to give up the search."

He asked each student to recall some relative or friend who died during the last war, and then ask himself the question, "Am I doing my best?"

Wilbur O'Connell was master of ceremonies during the program which included three marches by the High school band, two numbers by the choir, and a recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address by Harold Bauer.

35 Linfield Pupils Tour New York

Thirty-five children in the upper grades of the Linfield school returned late Thursday night from a one-day trip to New York City.

Leaving Linfield by bus at 6 a. m., the group visited the Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's island, the American Museum of Natural History, LaGuardia airport and several skyscrapers.

In charge of the trip were two teachers, Charles B. Shoup and Leonard Cadwell, and a mother, Mrs. Florence Turner.

Making the journey were Betty Lou Triney, Lois Hall, Joyce Christman, Fay Horner, Eleanor Osterle, Shirley Bieber, Betty Lee Kulp, Marion Heimback, Christine Reiter, Evelyn Rapp, Mary Ann Rapp, Edith Gaugler, Nancy McMann.

Also Sandy Stepps, Ramona Deery, Joan Smoyer, Mary Ann Albitt, Pauline Kugler, Shirley Renninger, Mary Jane Fritz, Carol Ann Grater, Mabel Ewing, Nancy Horner, Alma Epps, Agnes Epps, Patty Quay, Shirley Kuser.

Also Louise Epps, Phillip Sweetwood, George Deery, Bobby Quinn, Eddie Ewing, Mark Horner, Kenneth Hettrick and Leonard Berkey.

Warriors Blank Trojans, 5-0, to Win Section III Title

Pottstown Held to Four Hits In Playoff at Coatesville

By ELMER PANOC (Mercury Sports Editor)

COATESVILLE, May 28—The Warriors of West Chester High left no doubt as to who should rule as king in Section Three of the Philadelphia Suburban conference here today as they shut out Pottstown High, 5-0, to annex their second championship of the year.

Reggie Qualifies

New York university led all qualifiers in the 72d annual IC-4A outdoor championships with 14 places in New York yesterday, and among the NYU qualifiers was Reggie Pearlman (above). Pearlman, aiming at victories in the 440 and 880 to become the first man to achieve this since John Woodruff, of Pittsburgh, did it in 1939, won his 440 heat in 48.8 seconds but failed to qualify for the final, 880 that he was almost shut out by the stretch spurt in Phil O'Connell, of Manhattan.

Golden Cubs Top Stewart by 12-8 On 7th Inning Rally

The Golden Cubs of Pottstown Junior High rallied for seven runs in the seventh inning yesterday afternoon to defeat Stewart Junior High by a 12-8 count at Norristown. It was the second consecutive victory for the Cubs, who finished the season with a record of two wins and four defeats.

Stewart tied the score at 1-1 in the fourth and then put four bases on balls, two singles and an error together for seven runs and an 8-3 lead after five innings.

Pottstown tied the score at 1-1 in the sixth and then put four bases on balls, two singles and an error together for seven runs and an 8-3 lead after five innings.

The Warriors edged out the same Pottstown school for the basketball championship of Section Three only a few months ago.

Today's game at Central park was far different from the two others in which these two teams battled earlier this Spring. In the first two contests, Pottstown did all but hand victory to the Warriors on silver platters by committing costly errors, but today West Chester earned a victory.

The Warriors pounded Charlie Jenkins for nine base hits, seven of them figuring in the scoring. Jenkins was relieved by Homer Royer in the sixth inning in the midst of a three-run rally. Royer pitched to one man and forced him to ground out to end the inning.

WEST CHESTER opened scoring in the second inning when Brown walked, Ruggeri doubled and Bruno singled past first base to bring in two runs.

Jenkins held the Warriors scoreless until the sixth inning when he was greeted by a barrage of base hits. Consecutive singles by Brown, Ruggeri, Bruno, Chandler and Haver accounted for five runs before Coach Ed Good called it quits for Jenkins.

Duke Evans, who went the route for West Chester, had a one-hitter for five innings before the Trojans banged him for a few more bingles in the last two innings.

THE TROJANS threatened in the sixth when Johnny Snyder and Norm Sundstrom singled and advanced a base on a wild pitch, but Evans fanned Bill Mignona to end the inning.

George "Pud" Rath doubled to open the seventh inning and fans sensed another late rally by the Trojans, but three pinch-hitters failed to send Rath around the bases.

The Warriors not only scored their third straight win over the Trojans, but handed the Trojans their first shutout defeat as well. Coach Good's proteges always managed to score at least one run per game, but the Montgomery countyans couldn't do anything against Evans today.

STEWART TIED the score at 1-1 in the fourth and then put four bases on balls, two singles and an error together for seven runs and an 8-3 lead after five innings.

Pottstown tied the score at 1-1 in the sixth and then put four bases on balls, two singles and an error together for seven runs and an 8-3 lead after five innings.

BABEL MISSES NO-HITTER AS LINFIELD WINS

Beats Sanatoga by 16-0; Ringing Hill, Royersford and Graterford Triumph

An infield single by Bill Gauger robbed Frank Babel of a no-hit, no-run game last night as Linfield trounced Sanatoga by a 16-0 score in a Pottstown Suburban league game at Linfield.

Babel pitched six and two-thirds innings of hitless ball only to have Gauger get on first with a fluke pop-up in the infield that went for a base hit.

Babel faced only 23 batters during the entire game, two of which managed to reach first base safely.

LINFIELD, meanwhile, was pounding two Sanatoga pitchers for 12 base hits to score in every inning but the first. The victors had two four-run innings and two-three run innings.

In another league game last night, Ringing Hill scored twice in the second inning and once in the sixth to defeat Obelisk, 3-1, on the latter's field.

Paul Ludy, former Boyertown High twirler, struck out 11 batters in pitching a five-hitter for Ringing Hill.

In his other league games played last night, Royersford swamped Neiffer by an 11-7 count at Neiffer, and Graterford edged Swamp by a 6-5 score at Graterford.

BIG STRANAHAN REACHES FINALS OF BRITISH GOLF

Willie Turnesa Beaten In Semi-Finals by Mechanic After Uphill Battle

SANDWICH, Eng., May 28 (AP)—Frank Stranahan, the golfing adonis from Toledo, stroked his way brilliantly into the finals of the British Amateur today but Willie Turnesa of White Plains, N. Y., the defending champion, couldn't make it.

Willie, youngest of a famous golfing family, bowed out on the 18th green after having waged a gallant uphill fight against Charlie Stowe, an English Walker Cup star, in the semi-finals. It was the first time in six rounds of title play that Turnesa had been carried past the 15th hole.

Stranahan, a heavy favorite to vanquish Stowe in tomorrow's 36-hole final and win his first major title, spanked around the Royal St. George's course in two strokes under even fours for the 33 holes he needed to subdue two opponents today.

THE WEALTHY young mid-Westerner, making his third bid for the British crown since the war, whacked the Brazilian sensation, Mario Gonzalez, 4 and 2, in his morning match, and then stopped Denis Martin, a 41-year-old London stockbroker, 3 and 1.

Turnesa, hoping to play in his second straight all-American final on this side, looked like a sure bet as he thumped Sam Roberts of Wales, 4 and 3, in the quarter-finals. He went out in 34 shots and was two under fours when the match ended.

But he faltered for the first time as he started out against Stowe in the afternoon, took 38 fat strokes for the front nine and found himself three down as the match left the 12th tee.

There the kid brother of the Turnesa showed his class. He won three of the next five holes to stand all square as they teed off on the 18th. Then the fates deserted him. Each of his first two shots landed in the rough, and he bowed out to Stowe's steady par four.

Seven Races Listed For Sanatoga Track

A week's work with a bulldozer has provided more parking space at the Sanatoga speedway in Sanatoga park, and Karp Spatz announced that a better than capacity crowd is expected for the second program on the rebuilt macadam oval tomorrow afternoon.

A throng of 8500 fans turned out for the inaugural program a week ago while thousands more were forced to be turned away because of inadequate parking facilities.

Time trials are scheduled for 12 o'clock with the first of seven races listed to get underway at 2:30 o'clock. Four races are 12 laps, two are 15 laps and the feature is 25 laps.

Accompanying Citation to the post in addition to MacBeth will be A. J. Sackett's Gasparilla, also meeting the Calumet Ace for the first time; Sylvester Labrot Jr.'s Bovard; William Bellis' Salmagundi and Samuel Riddle's Faraway.

Five Horses Challenge Citation In $50,000 Jersey Stakes Today

CAMDEN, N. J., May 28 (AP)—The largest field to oppose Citation in a stake race this year tomorrow challenges the right of Warren Wright's Calumet farm speedster to rule the three-year-olds of the turf.

The names of five other colts joined that of Citation in the entry box today for the mile and one-quarter of the $50,000 added Jersey stakes at Garden State park.

Ballyhoo for the race has made much of the fact that two of the quintet never have tangled with the son of Bull Luda, and that the Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner will be asked to give from 12 to 15 pounds to four of his rivals.

J. M. Roebeling's MacBeth, one of the pair to be introduced to Citation for the first time, worked a stalling mile and one-quarter in 2:04 early in the week.

BUT DESPITE these facts the odds' board is expected to show 1 to 5 or shorter on the heir-apparent to the three-year old crown when the sextet parades postward.

There will be win betting only on the race. The New Jersey State Racing commission late today approved the action in order to avoid a possible minus place and show pool. State racing laws require the track to return at least $2.20 for each $2 wagered.

The forecast called for fair weather and a fast track for the occasion, which caused General Manager Walter Donovan to predict a record turnout of more than 45,000.

Accompanying Citation to the post in addition to MacBeth will be A. J. Sackett's Gasparilla, also meeting the Calumet Ace for the first time; Sylvester Labrot Jr.'s Bovard; William Bellis' Salmagundi and Samuel Riddle's Faraway.

Flagg's Trounce Diecasters Behind Jimmy Sheets, 7-0

Unleashing a powerful 13-hit assault to back up the four-hit pitching of Jimmy Scheetz, Flagg's conquered Doehler's 1947 City-Industrial league champions by a 7-0 score last night on Franklin Field to throw the local pennant race wide open.

It was the first defeat of the year for the past year's titlists and elevated UAW and the All-stars into a first place tie with the Diecasters.

Scheetz pitched brilliant ball for six full innings, but had to retire after giving up a single to Chump Pollock opening the seventh. He was hit on the wrist by his pitching hand by a pitched ball in the top of the seventh and complained of pain in his wrist.

BOBBY MILLARD, who starred at bat and afield for Flagg's throughout the game, relieved Scheetz and retired three men in order after Pollock singled. Scheetz was credited with the victory.

Millard was one of three players in Flagg's lineup to get three hits in four trips to the plate. Charlie Hertzog and Bill Harner were the others. Millard, however, was outstanding in last night's game.

He singled Harner home with Flagg's first run in the fourth inning to get the Flaggmen out in front, and he singled in the seventh to keep Flagg's big seven run rally going.

THE LITTLE RIGHTHANDER had the fielding gem of the night in right field by making a brilliant running catch of Nels Weidenbaugh's long drive.

Flagg's peeked away at Roger Schlichter for single runs in the fourth and sixth innings before they knocked him out of the box in the seventh.

Merrill Hook's homer into left field with Scheetz on base started the big rally, and Flagg's didn't stop until three more runs had crossed the plate.

The victory elevated Flagg's into a tie for sixth place with the Pottstown Amvets.

Tallyho Passengers To Extend Bid to Bicentennial Fete

Recalling days when stagecoaches stopped at the Rising Sun Inn, now known as the Shuler House, ten members of the Reading Junior Chamber of Commerce, clad in Colonial garb and riding a horse-drawn tallyho, will visit Pottstown next Friday.

They will travel to borough hall to invite borough officials to attend the peak period of Reading's Bicentennial celebration, Aug. 14 to Sept. 6.

The tallyho, which was made in London, England, will be furnished by Dr. Clarkson Addis, Collegeville. Dr. Addis will handle the reins on the four horses, two of his sons, Hunter and Todd, will serve as footmen, and a third son, Clarkson Jr., will serve as guard.

Known as official Bicentennial ambassadors of good will, the Reading delegation will wear costumes depicting such famous men in the city's history as Conrad Weiser, colonial land agent, judge and interpreter; Thomas Penn, founder of the city, and Richard Peters, one of Penn's land agents in early-day Reading.

The group will stop in Pottstown enroute to the Junior Chamber of Commerce national convention in Philadelphia.

Executives and Foremen Win Award for Efficiency

The Pottstown Executives' and Foremen's club has been given the "E" award for efficiency by the National Council of Foremen's clubs, it was announced yesterday.

It was the second consecutive year that the local group received the honor.

The award was given for the club's efforts under the presidency of Francis M. Wampler, whose term expired the past April.

Courts Nearly Ready For Marbles Meet

Construction of the clay courts for the district finals of The Mercury's 1948 National Marbles tournament will be completed today, Francis Donnon, recreation director, announced yesterday.

Donnon said the white sides and rings of the new pits will be painted today to complete the job.

The rings, which were constructed by Dick Ricketts, of the recreation commission staff, will be in complete readiness for the district playoffs in Manatoway park at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Tournament judges yesterday asked that all 17 school champions competing in the playoffs remember to bring their own shooters and to wear sneakers or tennis shoes to the matches.

They reminded the mibsters that the games will be conducted according to national tournament rules.

MISS JENKINS —

1006 Bellevue avenue, grew up in the Pottstown school system. After graduating from Pottstown Senior High school, she was graduated from West Chester State Teachers college and returned to teach here in September, 1927.

She taught continuously at the Grant and Rupert buildings until her election as supervisor of elementary education in 1943. While at the Rupert building, she organized one of the first elementary school orchestras in the school district. The group of child musicians gave several recitals, appearing chiefly before Parent-Teacher association audiences.

An active student, she took university work while teaching school at the same time. In 1940, she was granted a sabbatical leave and finished the required work for her bachelor's degree at Temple university.

Next month, further honors will be accorded her when she receives her master's degree from Temple. Her dissertation for this degree, "A Study of Continuous Progress Programs in Elementary Schools," is a direct outgrowth of her work in Pottstown.

With Harvard E. Fosnacht, elementary school principal, she was instrumental in instituting the continuous progress program in the Pottstown schools.

"She will have an opportunity at Millersville to present the continuous progress theory to teachers who will be going into the classrooms," Dr. Haisoun said yesterday. "This is the organization recommended for elementary schools by the Department of Public Instruction."

Joint Brotherhood Receives Charter

The Salem - Baltzell Evangelical United Brethren Brotherhood last night received its charter and admitted the last charter members.

A. C. Spangler, director of the church's brotherhood work in Eastern Pennsylvania, presented the charter to President Walter Smith, of Baltzell church, and a duplicate to Jeremiah Bohner, vice president, of Salem church.

Nine church men took advantage of the last opportunity to join as charter members. The charter has been open since February.

Spangler told the 27 members present that man must do two things to return to the innocence he enjoyed before his disobedience to God.

"There must be a new birth of men's souls," he said, "and men must exercise faith."

The Senate unanimously confirmed Charles F. Brannan (above) to be Secretary of Agriculture yesterday. He succeeds Clinton P. Anderson who resigned to run for the U. S. Senate in New Mexico.

Ninth Grade Group Visits Harrisburg

To celebrate their rise from Junior to Senior high school, 30 West Pottsgrove High school Ninth graders yesterday took an all-day bus trip to Harrisburg and Hershey.

Leaving before 8 a. m. and accompanied by three chaperones, the group reached Hershey at 10:30 o'clock and spent half an hour touring the chocolate factory there.

Harrisburg was the next stop. The pupils went through the Capitol and Education buildings before eating lunch and then left hurriedly to have more time at Hershey park on the way home.

At the park, some of the group went through the amusement shows and some watched a baseball game. They were back in Stowe by 7 p. m.

Chaperones were Margaret F. Werner, class sponsor, Jessie H. Rosenberry, assistant principal of the school, and William Goehne, physical education director.

The third molars are called wisdom teeth because normally they are not cut until a persons is between 18 and 25 years old.

Obituaries

Funeral services for WAYNE V. KULP, 20, of 575 EAST HOWARD STREET, STOWE, who was killed the past Monday when his car slipped from his jack as he was working underneath it, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 258 Beech street.

Officiating was the Rev. Forrest T. Nelson, pastor of Assemblies of God Tabernacle. Interment was made in Mt. Zion cemetery.

Full military honors were accorded by Pottstown's Company A, 111th Infantry, National Guard, with Capt. Charles C. Barr, commander, in charge.

Bearers were Harrison Koehner, Kenneth Hanley, Foster Drumheller, Leonard Minninger, Frank Romahn and John Noecker.

In the guard of honor were John Clone, Joseph Brandie, Early Bailey, Ralph Stout, Hanley and Minninger. The firing squad was composed of members of two National Guard companies from Philadelphia.
